One More Five-Day Week

We have this five day week before taking a break for Labor Day. There are several new and important items below so be sure to check it out. I hope you enjoy a fun and safe three-day weekend!

Connect Via Text Message For School Closing & Emergency Info

Mr. Foster mentioned in his Parents Night address that you could opt into technology that will send you text messages when the school has weather or other delays/closings or if an emergency situation arises. These messages can come in very early in the morning so be aware before signing up.

"Rock The House" September 10

All students are invited to CCHS for Rock the House Saturday, September 10 from 6:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. Rock the House is a fun way for students to celebrate their faith. The night includes dinner, games, the opportunity to go to Confession, and Saturday Vigil Mass together as a school.

Help A Central Catholic Alum at FRIDAY's Football Game

Past and present Central Catholic parents and alums will be in the stands at the end of the first quarter of the Central Catholic - U-High game this Friday for a special BEN-efit. Saints alum and member of the 2008 State Champion Football team, Ben McAllister ('10), is battling a rare form of kidney cancer. Donations and pledges will be happily accepted to help with the many expenses that accrue fighting a serious illness. Thank you for your support!

Senior Car Wash SATURDAY

Yes, you have seen this before. Unfortunately the first attempt at a Senior Car Wash was rained out. Don't worry, though, there are several opportunities this week to get your car dirty again. On SATURDAY, September 3 just drive over to Epiphany between 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. and let our Seniors clean it up for a donation to their Senior Charity, Special Olympics Illinois.

LAST CHANCE To Get Your Tickets for "The Dean's" Roast & Toast SATURDAY

Take that nice clean car over to Bloomington Country Club later in the evening for the Coach "The Dean" Snyder Roast & Toast. Get your tickets NOW; the evening starts at 5:30 p.m. with a cash bar Cocktail Reception, dinner is served at 7:00 p.m., then the stories begin to fly as we honor everything Coach Snyder has done for Central Catholic High School. Whether you were taught or coached by "The Dean" or had the pleasure of meeting him and hearing a few of his stories, this night is for you. We look forward to seeing you SATURDAY!

Young Hearts For Life Free ECG Screening September 28

In an effort to reduce sudden cardiac death in young adults in our community, Young Hearts for Life is providing free ECG screenings for Central Catholic High School students on Wednesday, September 28. Please read this letter to parents, register your student here, and fill out this form from our Diocese to participate in the free screening.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: We need parent and community volunteers to make this possible. Volunteers must be 18 or older and are required to attend a 90-minute training session on Tuesday, September 27, at either 5:00 p.m. or 6:30 p.m. at the school. No medical background is necessary. You can sign up online and an email confirming your spot will be sent.

Great Events Coming Up For Our Men AND Women

NOTE: Men's "Stag" Hog Roast Rescheduled for Thursday, September 29
